

The New CARDELL™ BP Monitor Model 9401 Providing BPx Quickly, Easily and Consistently

CARDELL® Model 9401

Provides blood pressure quickly, easily, and consistently

The Cardell Veterinary Blood Pressure Monitor Model 9401 is the newest development to help veterinarians assess patient condition from routine physicals to delicate surgery... at an economical price.

Blood pressure monitoring has become an essential component of care at most veterinary practices. The Model 9401 combines new BP monitoring features with reliability and accuracy that makes it ideal for veterinary use.

- Provides systolic, diastolic, mean arterial pressure and heart rate in seconds.
- STAT mode provides continuous readings for five minutes with 10 seconds pause between - useful in acute patients at risk.
- Heart rate range of 20 to 300 beats / min.
- Set auto measurement from 1 - 90 minutes.
- Manual and automatic mode for readings.
- AC or rechargeable battery (6+ hours). Works on 100 volt to 240 volt.
- Stores 99 minutes of readings or the last five hours for fast recall.
- High & Low alarm setting for all parameters.
- Message window displays system alarms and troubleshooting messages.
- Lightweight at 5.5 lbs.
- Comes with 12 cuffs in 6 different sizes.
- No external microphone to place and no shaving necessary.
- 3-year warranty; 1-year on battery pack